Markus Shaw, Chair of Walk DVRC Ltd

Markus is passionate about making Hong Kong a more people-friendly environment. He is a lifelong citizen of Hong Kong. Following a history degree from Cambridge University, he spent six years as a corporate lawyer with the City law firm Linklaters in London, Singapore and Hong Kong before joining the family business in 1992. He is a Managing Director of his family's investment office. Mr. Shaw is active in the not-for-profit and philanthropic areas. He has co-founded NGOs in the fields of better urban planning ("Designing Hong Kong") and air pollution ("Clean Air Network"). Committed to nature conservation, he was a member of WWF International's Board of Trustees from 2005 to 2015 and is a Trustee (and former Chairman) of WWF-Hong Kong. He was also a member of the Hong Kong Government's Advisory Council on the Environment from 2004 to 2008. Markus is a frequent speaker and columnist on conservation, the environment, urban planning and other policy issues. Married with three children, he maintains a keen interest in public policy, literature, history, music, photography and the great outdoors.
