

Overview

Since China's stock market was launched in the early Nineties, it has been volatile in a sideways manner. This is to set to change for the better in future. While he cannot be sure of the timing of this major positive change, Mr. Tan Teng Boo from Capital Dynamics has a list of reasons as to why it will happen, include "better laws, regulations and governance". This seminar aims to discuss how China's economic, political and cultural transformation can benefit China's stock market.

Content

In this seminar, Mr. Tan Teng Boo will share his view about:

1. China From the Quantity and Quality Angles
2. Development of China - from Ancient to Modern to Advanced
3. Why and when to invest in China?

Speaker

Mr TAN Teng Boo
Founder and CEO of Capital Dynamics Group
