The speaker: Ms Angela Law is a Senior Associate of Clifford Chance. She was qualified as a Solicitor in Hong Kong in 2009; in New South Wales, Australia in 2006; and in England and Wales in 2011. She is also a mediator accredited by the HKMAAL and HKIAC.

Angela is a commercial litigator with a particular focus on contentious trust matters. She has much experience in banking litigation, regulatory investigations and arbitration. In recent years, Angela has advised trustees on the administration of trusts and represented trustees in legal proceedings in Hong Kong. Angela has also acted for high net worth individuals in relation to family trust disputes and assisted clients in offshore legal proceedings relating to trustees' "blessing" applications. Angela further advises executors on the administration of estates and represents trustees and executors in applications pursuant to Order 85 of the Rules of the High Court.

With her experience in contentious trust matters, Angela will provide our Members with an overview of the trustee's duties in the context of a discretionary trust and also share with us her experience in handling trust disputes.

The talk:

Trustees play an important role in the administration of trusts. Often, trustees have to make decisions in the midst of disagreement amongst beneficiaries. What are the duties of a trustee? How should they act when some beneficiaries support while some beneficiaries disagree with their decisions? This seminar will give you a general overview on the trustee's duties, and offer you some insight on handling trust disputes.
