FEES SUBSCRIPTIONS AND LEVIES

- 20. (a) Each Member shall pay to the Association an Annual Subscription of such sum as may from time to time be fixed by the Executive Committee. Annual subscriptions shall be for such period of 12 calendar months as may be fixed by the Executive Committee and shall be payable in advance by 1 installment on or prior to the due date therefor fixed by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may determine at any time and from time to time to change the months for which an Annual Subscription is due and in such case, may determine to pro-rate the amount paid or payable by Members to take account thereof. Where a Member is admitted to membership on a date other than the commencement of the period for which the Annual Subscription is due, the Annual Subscription payable for that period shall be such sum as the Executive Committee may determine whether being a pro-rata part of the Annual Subscription payable for the full period calculated to the beginning of the month in which the Member is so admitted or otherwise.

Unless other notice is given, where a Corporate Member has appointed a person for election as a member of the Executive Committee for the purposes of Article 52 such person shall be deemed appointed as the representative of the Corporate Member to attend at general meetings of Corporate Members.
- (b) A person authorised to be a Member's representative shall complete such form and provide such particulars to the Executive Committee as the Executive Committee may from time to time stipulate.

GENERAL MEETINGS

- 22. Subject to Sections 611, 612 and 613 of the Companies Ordinance, the Association shall hold a general meeting in respect of each financial year as its annual general meeting at such time as may be determined by the Executive Committee, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it.
- 23. All general meetings of Members are general meetings, including annual general meeting.

24. The Executive Committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a general meeting. General meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as is provided by Sections 556 to 568 of the Companies Ordinance. If the Executive Committee does not call a general meeting in accordance with Section 567 of the Companies Ordinance, the Members who requested the meeting, or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of all of the Members, may themselves call a general meeting in accordance with Section 568 of the Companies Ordinance.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

25. 21 days' notice in writing at the least of every annual general meeting and 14 days' notice in writing at the least of every other general meeting, specifying (a) either or both of the physical venue of the meeting and the virtual meeting technology to be used for holding the meeting (and if the general meeting is to be held in 2 or more physical venues, the principal venue of the general meeting and the other venue or venues of that general meeting); (b) the day and time of the general meeting; and (c) the general nature of the business to be dealt with at that general meeting; shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons as are under these presents or under the Companies Ordinance entitled to receive such notices from the Association. The notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify the meeting as such. The notice convening a general meeting to move a resolution shall include notice of that resolution or be accompanied by a statement containing the information and explanation, if any, that is reasonably necessary to indicate the purpose of that resolution.
26. The period of notice shall be exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall be given in a manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Association in general meeting, to the Members; provided that a general meeting of the Association shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Article, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:-
- (a) in the case of a meeting called as an annual general meeting, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
 - (b) in the case of any other general meeting, by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together representing not less than 95% of the total voting rights of all the Members entitled to attend and vote at that meeting.

27. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolution passed, or the proceedings of any business transacted at any meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

28. The business generally transacted at an annual general meeting may include the consideration of reporting documents, and the reports of the Board, and of the auditors, the election of Executive Committee in place of those retiring, and the appointment and the fixing of the remuneration of auditors.
29. Attendance of any Member at any general meeting shall be by way of one of the following means: (i) attendance in person; or (ii) attendance by using the virtual meeting technology specified in the notice of the meeting; or (iii) attendance by other lawful electronic means and in such manner as may be agreed by the Association in general meeting. For the avoidance of doubt, this shall not preclude the holding of any general meeting at which some Members attend in person and some Members attend via virtual meeting technology or other lawful electronic means.
30. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
31. The quorum at any general meeting shall not be less than 10 Members present in person or by proxy or by representative. A person who attends a general meeting by using the virtual meeting technology specified in the notice of the meeting, or by other lawful electronic means and in such manner as may be agreed by the Association in general meeting is to be regarded as being present while so attending.
32. If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for holding a general meeting a quorum is not present, or if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned. The chairman of the meeting shall determine the day and time of the adjourned meeting, and either or both of the physical venue of the adjourned meeting and the virtual meeting technology to be used for holding the adjourned meeting. If 2 or more physical venues are determined, the chairman shall determine the principal venue and the other venue or venues of the adjourned meeting. If at the adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, then the Members present in person or by proxy or by representative shall be a quorum.

33. The Chairman or, failing him, the Vice-Chairman shall preside at every general meeting but if there is no such Chairman or Vice-Chairman, or if at any general meeting he is not present at the time appointed for holding that meeting, or is unwilling to preside, the Members present shall choose one of their number present to preside.
 - (a) The chairman of any general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the general meeting from time to time, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned general meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
 - (b) When a general meeting is adjourned for 10 days or more, notice of the adjourned general meeting shall be given in the same manner as in the case of the original meeting.
 - (c) Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned general meeting. If no notice of an adjourned meeting is given, a person who attends the adjourned meeting by using the virtual meeting technology determined by the chairman under Article 25 is to be regarded as being present while so attending.
35. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by at least 2 Members present in person having the right to vote at the meeting, and, unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.
36. If a poll is duly demanded (and the demand is not withdrawn) it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The Company must record in the minutes of the meeting of the Association result of the poll in accordance with the Companies Ordinance.

37. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
38. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs.
39. Notwithstanding the statutory procedures in the Companies Ordinance relating to passing of written resolution, the Association may also pass written resolution of Members if upon receipt of the written resolution circulated by the members of the Executive Committee, all eligible Members entitled to vote on the resolution signify agreement to the written resolution in accordance with this Article. A resolution in writing signed or otherwise agreed by all Members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and attend and vote at general meetings (or being corporations, by a director thereof or by their duly authorised representative) shall be treated as a resolution duly passed at a general meeting of the Association duly convened and held, and, where relevant, as a special resolution so passed. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed or agreed by one or more persons. The written resolution, duly signed or agreed, shall be returned or sent to the Association in hard copy form or in electronic form to an address specified for the purpose from time to time by the Association.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

40. Every Member shall have 1 vote, provided always that where an Individual Member is an employee or officer of a Corporate Member, he shall not have any vote or right to vote unless he is the duly authorised representative of that Corporate Member and, when he so exercises his right to vote, he shall do so not in his name but in the name of the Corporate Member.
41. Votes may be given in person, by proxy or by representative.
42. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or its attorney duly authorised in writing either under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy need not be a Member.
43. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the Registered Office or in such other place within Hong Kong as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

- 44. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in such form as shall be prescribed by the Executive Committee.
- 45. A vote or poll demanded by proxy or by the duly authorised representative of a corporate Member shall be valid notwithstanding the previous revocation of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll provided that no intimation in writing of such revocation as aforesaid shall have been received by the Association at the Registered Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- 46. Subject to Articles 49 and 50, the Executive Committee shall consist of not less than 3 Members. The maximum number of members shall be determined by a simple majority of the members of the Executive Committee of the Association from time to time.
- 46A. The Executive Committee shall be composed of a simple majority of Corporate Members for the time being. Notwithstanding anything in these Articles, an Individual Member may only be appointed a member of the Executive Committee in his own name as an Individual Member if at the time he stands for election to the Executive Committee or is otherwise nominated to take up such an appointment he is not employed by or otherwise an officer of a Corporate Member. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Article 46A shall prevent an Individual Member from being the duly authorised representative of a Corporate Member of which he is an employee or officer on the Executive Committee.
- 47. At each general meeting of the Association, all the members of the Executive Committee shall retire from office but shall be eligible for re-election.
- 48. The Executive Committee shall within 60 days of each annual general meeting of the Association send a notice to each Member requesting such Member to indicate by notice in writing to the Association prior to the date for such annual general meeting whether such Member is willing to be elected as a member of the Executive Committee or, in the case of a Corporate Member, to nominate a person to be elected as a member of the Executive Committee in accordance with Article 52. Any Member who does not so indicate within 7 days prior to such annual general meeting shall be deemed to be unwilling to be so elected unless such Member indicates otherwise to the Executive Committee or at the annual general meeting and the chairman of such meeting decides that such Member may so stand for election to the Executive Committee or the person nominated by such Member may be elected as a member of the Executive Committee.

49. At each annual general meeting of the Association a new Executive Committee shall be elected from amongst the Members who by notice under Article 48 have indicated a willingness to be so elected or, in the case of Corporate Members, have nominated a person to be elected as a member of the Executive Committee.
- 49A. An Individual Member may only be eligible for appointment as an Individual Member of the Executive Committee if he has for at least 12 months prior to his candidacy or nomination as the case may be, served satisfactorily, as determined in the reasonable discretion of the Executive Committee for the time being, as a member of a sub-committee of the Association. For the avoidance of doubt nothing in this Article 49A shall apply to an Individual Member or other person who is designated a representative of a Corporate Member.
50. The Executive Committee shall have power to co-opt a Member or a person nominated by a Corporate Member onto the Executive Committee, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing members of the Executive Committee, but so that the total number of members of the Executive Committee shall not at any time exceed the maximum number so determined in accordance with Article 46 or the proportion of Individual Members and Corporate Members stipulated in Article 46A.
51. If the minimum number of members of the Executive Committee under Article 46 is not filled by election at any general meeting of the Association, the vacancy shall be treated as a casual vacancy and the member or members of the Executive Committee who has or have been elected shall have power to co-opt a Member or Members or a person or persons nominated by a Corporate Member or Corporate Members to fill such vacancy, subject to Article 46A.

52. Each Corporate Member shall nominate in writing a person as it may decide (who shall be any one of its chairman, chief executive officer, managing director, officer in charge or other most senior executive engaged in its trust business in Hong Kong) for election as a member of the Executive Committee, and may withdraw and substitute any such nomination at any time.
53. The nomination in writing of a person for election as a member of the Executive Committee by a Corporate Member shall be delivered to the Association.
54. The Executive Committee shall elect from amongst their number the Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

55. The business of the Association shall be managed by the Executive Committee, who may pay all expenses incurred in setting up and registering the Association.
56. The Executive Committee may exercise all such powers of the Association as are not by the Companies Ordinance, or by the Articles, required to be exercised by the Association in general meeting, subject nevertheless to any requirements of the Articles, to the provisions of the Companies Ordinance, and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid requirements or provisions, as may be prescribed by the Association in general meeting, provided however that no such regulation shall invalidate any prior act of the Executive Committee which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.
