Tentative Programme Outline

18 January 2021 (Monday) – Day 1
08:30 – 09:15	Opening Session Welcome Remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Dr Peter K N Lam (林建岳), GBS Chairman, Hong Kong Trade Development Council</li> </ul> Opening Remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Senior Representative from the HKSARG</li> </ul>
09:15 – 10:30	Plenary Session – Reshaping World Economic Landscape The global economy has been severely disrupted by the COVID-19 pandemic. While there are evolving developments in coronavirus vaccines and social distancing measures around the world, economic revival and making good the deficit occasioned by the long lockdown is more pressing than ever. It would be of interest whether the global economy is undergoing just another cycle, or that the trajectory of economic development has been fundamentally changed. Meanwhile, the ongoing trade disputes, climate changes and waves of technological advancements also play a part in reshaping the world economic landscape. In this session, policymakers and international organisation leaders will share their insights as to the roles of the financial services sector in contributing to the bolstering of economic recovery, as well as the opportunities for financial services in the new economic landscape. Panel Chair <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Senior Representative from the HKSARG</li> </ul> Speakers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Ms Teresa Czerwińska Vice-President and Member of the Management Committee of the European Investment Bank</li> <li>▪ H E Dr Bandar M H Hajjar President, Islamic Development Bank</li> <li>▪ Mr Jin Liqun (金立群) President and Chairman, Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank</li> </ul>

10:45 – 11:45	Policy Dialogue - Policy responses to COVID-19 In the face of the COVID-19 pandemic, governments worldwide have rolled out sizable fiscal stimulus and introduced unconventional monetary policy to shore up economic activity. With social distancing and travel restrictions in place, corporates and financial institutions have also made greater use of technology in business models and operations. In this session, policy makers will share thoughts on the effectiveness of fiscal and monetary policies in supporting growth, and the implications of increasing use of financial technology from the regulators' perspective. Panel Chair <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Mr Eddie Yue (余偉文), JP Chief Executive, Hong Kong Monetary Authority</li> </ul> Speakers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Dr Ahmed Abdulkarim Alkholifey Governor, Saudi Arabian Monetary Policy</li> <li>▪ Mr Ryoza Himino Commissioner, Financial Services Agency of Japan</li> <li>▪ Mr Martin Raiser Country Director, China and Mongolia, and Director, Korea, The World Bank</li> </ul>

	How to Accelerate Digital Financial Inclusion in the Times of COVID-19 – The Case of Digital Banks Co-organised by   Digital financial inclusion has created unheralded opportunities for unbanked populations. Digital financial services are now available in more than 80 countries across the world, some achieving significant scale. Most have built on the digital approaches that traditional banks have used to adapt their in-person services. COVID-19 has further increased the usage of digital channels by customers and accelerated the innovation of disruptive solutions, especially digital-only banks. Asia and Pacific is encouraging the growth of digital banks nowadays: Hongkong and Singapore are the front runners, and Malaysia and Thailand are likely to follow. Fully digital banking services are also operational in China, South Korea, Australia, Japan, and India. What are the key success factor, what are the lessons learnt from both the regulator and bank's perspective. How can we replicate the success to emerging markets? Moderator (TBC) Speakers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Mrs Leta Havea Kami CEO, Tonga Development Bank</li> <li>▪ Ms Maria Kozloski Senior Vice President / Chief, Innovative Finance, The Rockefeller Foundation</li> <li>▪ Mr Simon Loong (龍沛智) Founder &amp; Group CEO, WeLab</li> <li>▪ Mr Navin Suri CEO, Percipient</li> </ul>
