

Audrey Zau

Bio

Audrey is a private wealth professional. She is a managing director at Lombard Odier Hong Kong, looking after private clients and family office clients in Hong Kong and Asia. Audrey provides private wealth solutions through working extensively with the investment team, family services unit, and independent trust companies.

Prior to joining Lombard Odier in 2019, she was Head of Wealth Management Asia, for Rothschild & Co. between 2015-2019, actively engaging in management, private wealth business development, oversight of regulatory and operational compliance, finance budgeting and cost control.

In the past, Audrey worked for various international banking groups, namely HSBC, Lloyds Bank International Private Banking, Bank Hapoalim Group and Daiwa Securities Group. She has held senior roles in managerial, business development, wealth management and planning, covering high net worth clients in Asia.

Audrey is a Registered Trust and Estate Practitioner (TEP), Full Member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners UK, and a Certified Trust Practitioner (Hong Kong Trust Association). She holds industry licenses in Switzerland and Hong Kong in client advisory, securities dealing and advising; and currently serves on the STEP/HKTA China Sub-Committee. Audrey received her tertiary education at Imperial College London (MBA) and King's College London (BSc).

Audrey was recently a panel speaker on private wealth matters at the Deacons In-house General Counsel Forum (2022) and HKTA Annual Conference (2021).