

HKTA seminar: The treatment of trusts in matrimonial litigation

The Talk will cover:

This essential session features family law experts unravelling the complex intersection of family law and trust structures. Attendees will gain invaluable insights into the treatment of trusts in matrimonial litigation, including challenges and pitfalls faced by those seeking to make claims against trust assets, and by those seeking to resist them. The session will also explore the role of nuptial agreements in relation to non-nuptial trusts.

Speakers

- Mr. Deepak Nagpal K.C. (England & Wales), Member of Temple Chambers

Deepak Nagpal K.C. (England & Wales) is a member of Temple Chambers in Hong Kong and 1 King's Bench Walk in London. He is forging a broad civil litigation practice in Hong Kong, with a particular focus on private client cases, ranging from matrimonial to property, trusts and inheritance disputes. Deepak is especially renowned for his expertise in matrimonial finance and he features in the pre-eminent category in the Doyle's Guide 2024 for Hong Kong family law barristers. In this year's Legal 500 Asia Pacific Guide, Deepak has been described as "an absolutely sensational barrister" and "streets ahead of the competition in Hong Kong".

- Ms. Elaine Sum, Partner and Private Adjudicator, Haldanes

Elaine Sum, a Partner at the Family and Matrimonial Department of Haldanes, has over 19 years of experience as a matrimonial and family lawyer. She specializes in a wide range of matrimonial matters, including divorce, financial disputes, custody and maintenance. Elaine's background in civil litigation and banking provides her with valuable insights to handle complex cases involving trusts, company structures, and cross-border assets. She is also a trained Collaborative Practitioner, underscoring her commitment to finding practical legal solutions. In 2023, she gained the qualification as a Private Financial Adjudicator. Recommended by Benchmark, Doyle's Guide and Chambers and Partners, Elaine is known for her pragmatic approach to helping clients and their families move forward.
