A SEMINAR ON

PRC TAX AND MATRIMONIAL ISSUES IN STRUCTURING SALES OF PRC BUSINESSES, WITH TRUST AND US TAX PLANNING (WITH 2013 LEGAL UPDATE)

Speakers: Mr Todd Beutler and Mr Todd Wang (DLA Piper)

Date: Thursday 24 January 2013

Time: 6.00 p.m. – 7.00 p.m.

Venue: DLA Piper, 17/F Edinburgh Tower, The Landmark,
15 Queen's Road Central, Hong Kong

Todd Beutler: with over 16 years of tax and trust experience, Todd Beutler's practice is focused on family-owned and other private companies, trusts, foundations and family offices, and related charitable foundations and organizations on a wide range of international tax matters. Todd also represents clients in tax controversy matters and in litigation of disputes involving trusts, estates, conservatorships and guardianships.

Todd Wang: with over 20 years of international tax experience at the China State Tax Administration, as an in-house tax director, and in private practice, Todd Wang's practice is focused on private and public companies and their related holding structures, with a focus on investments into and out of China. Todd addresses a wide variety of international and regional tax issues for companies and their owners with interests throughout Asia.

This presentation will address the use of trusts and structured transactions to achieve optimal tax benefits for the owners of companies that may go IPO or have a private equity sale in the future. In addition to addressing the important PRC family law issues, the speakers will address tax issues for the settlers and beneficiaries with a focus on PRC, Hong Kong and US tax issues.

Those interested should register using the attached seminar enrolment form.
