Speaker:

Peter Ch'ng leads Conyers' Private Client & Trust practice from the Hong Kong office. He is a multi-disciplinary lawyer with over 25 years of experience. He joined Conyers in 2001 and was a Director in the Bermuda office prior to relocating to Hong Kong in 2017.

Peter focuses on Greater China and Asia-based clientele with the establishment and administration of offshore trusts. He specialises in non-contentious advisory work for commercial and private wealth structuring purposes. He is experienced in advising high net-worth individuals, business owners, investors, corporates and charitable entities on trusts and estate planning work, including succession planning, family trust, asset protection, family business succession and governance.

Additionally, his offshore law practice spans across mergers and acquisitions, insurance and reinsurance, mutual and investment funds including ILS structures, SACs, private equity partnerships, structured finance, special purpose vehicles and ownership-remote structures including charities, debt and equity offerings, IPOs and private placements, banking and financial services including financial derivatives, credit and security and general corporate and commercial matters across multiple jurisdictions.

Peter is consistently recognised by independent legal directories including Legal 500 for his work in corporate and commercial and insurance/reinsurance. Peter is admitted to the Bar Associations and the Law Societies in BVI, Bermuda, United Kingdom, New York and Singapore.

Conyers' Bermuda and Cayman Islands Private Client & Trust practices have been recognized in Chambers & Partners' High Net Worth Guide 2019, with Band 1 and Band 2 rankings respectively.

The talk will cover:

- Background and Landscape to Trusts Planning in North Asia
- Reasons and Rationale for Pre-IPO Trusts
- Some Legal Considerations for the Trustees including Legal Pitfalls
- Corporate Governance Considerations for Trustees (Professional trustees and PTCs)
